

FLORIDA WOMAN SUFFERS 26 YEARS AND IS AT LAST GIVEN RELIEF

Swift Relief from Stomach Ills Found by Mrs. Pettis of Ybor City.

Mrs. T. S. Pettis of Ybor City, Fla., suffered for more than twenty-five years with stomach troubles. She had led a sedentary life and digestive troubles resulted.

She took Mayr's Wonderful Stomach Remedy and received immediate benefit. She has written an interesting letter, in which she says:

"I was almost frightened at the results at first. I am delighted at the improvement in my condition. I have told many of my acquaintances of your medicine. I was a stomach sufferer for 26 years and this is the only remedy which brought results to me."

That same sort of experience is general among the users of Mayr's Wonderful Stomach Remedy. The first dose convinces. It is known all over the nation because of its merit. Mayr's Wonderful Stomach Remedy clears the digestive tract of mucoid accretions and removes poisonous matter. It brings swift relief to sufferers from stomach, liver and bowel ailments. Many declare that it has saved them from dangerous operations; many are sure it has saved their lives.

We want all people who have chronic stomach trouble or constipation, no matter of how long standing, to try one dose of Mayr's Wonderful Stomach Remedy—one dose will convince you. This is the medicine so many of our people have been taking with surprising results. The most thorough system cleanser we ever sold. JOHN W. LITTLE DEAD.

Well Known Citizen of Clinton Died Last Tuesday Afternoon.

Clinton, Nov. 11.—John W. Little, familiarly known by all as "Uncle Chaney," died here at the home of his son on Tuesday afternoon at 6 o'clock, after a lingering illness of several months. For some time his condition had been alarming and the sad end did not come as a surprise to the members of the family. He was 83 years old, being second to the oldest citizen in this community. He was buried Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the Duncan Creek cemetery, a large concourse of friends, as a token of esteem, following the body to its last resting place. The funeral services were conducted with Masonic rites, and by Rev. F. D. Jones, of the Presbyterian church, of which the deceased recently became a member.

"Uncle Chaney" had resided here practically all of his life and was familiarly known and liked by a large circle of friends and acquaintances. He was an active member of the Masonic lodge and a gallant soldier of the Confederate army. He married Miss Eliza Little, who preceded him to the grave several years ago, leaving three children. Their home life was harmonious and happy and their friends were always welcome to its hospitable doors. Since the death of his wife he has made his home with his son, Thomas H. Little, of this place.

Up until a year ago he had always enjoyed splendid health and never knew what it was to be sick. His end was peaceful, surrounded by relatives and friends. He will be greatly missed in the home where he lived so long and in the community where he was always a sympathetic friend. A good soldier under the south's leading generals, and a faithful and true friend, he sleeps well, leaving the record of a long and honorable life.

The deceased is survived by two sons—Thomas H. Little, of this city, and J. P. Little, of Phoenix, Ariz., and a number of grandchildren and other relatives.

MANY RUINED LIVES

Hundreds can point to the use of calomel as the cause of physical decay. Its strenuous effects upon liver, kidneys and even the heart are known to every practicing physician.

Medical science has found a vegetable compound that eliminates the poisons from the liver and accumulations from the bowels in a safer and saner way than does calomel and leaves no ill after-effects.

This remedy in the form of GRIGSBY'S LIVER-LAX is a proven success. It is for sale in 50c and $1.00 bottles by Laurens Drug Co. who guarantees to refund purchase price if you want it. It is always protected by the likeness of L. K. Grigsby.

Complimentary Letter.

Columbia, S. C., Nov. 4, 1914.

Miss Will Lou Gray,

Laurens, S. C.

My Dear Miss Gray:

Allow me to thank you for your contribution to our State Fair Exhibit. Without your co-operation, the exhibit would have been incomplete. I wish it were possible for me to know each school, each teacher, and even each pupil who contributed to this display, in order that I might thank them personally for their help.

The co-operation given in this undertaking makes me know that there exists in each of the 5 counties represented a fine school spirit. Our exhibit was purely educational and inspirational. Had it been otherwise, prizes or awards of some kind would have played an important part. The beautiful co-operation given, even with a knowledge that there would be no remuneration for the effort, is unusual and fine.

Many fine comments have been made on the display of the School Improvement Association by people who are fully competent to judge. Though an exhibit of this kind represents much time and physical strength, yet I feel that we should be satisfied and feel fully repaid. The Fair Management has already extended an invitation to us to place another exhibit at their next show. If such is possible, I believe it would be fully worth while to do so.

Please accept my sincerest thanks, and extend my appreciation to each individual and community who helped to make our exhibit a success.

Most sincerely yours,

Mary Eva Hite,

Pres. S. C. School Imp. Ass'n.

It Really Does Relieve Rheumatism.

Everybody who is afflicted with Rheumatism in any form should by all means keep a bottle of Sloan's Liniment on hand. The minute you feel pain or soreness in a joint or muscle, rub it with Sloan's Liniment. Do not rub it. Sloan's penetrates almost immediately right to the seat of pain, relieving the hot, tender, swollen feeling and making the part easy and comfortable. Get a bottle of Sloan's Liniment for 25 cents of any druggist and have it in the house—against colds, sore and swollen joints, rheumatism, neuralgia, sciatica and like ailments. Your money back if not satisfied, but it does give almost instant relief.

GREENVILLE POSTMASTERSHIP.

Choice Narrowed Down to Two or Three Applicants. No Primary.

Washington, Nov. 13.—Representative Johnson stated today, in response to an inquiry as to his recommendation for postmaster at Greenville, that while he had not actually made up his mind on any one candidate, he has given the matter considerable attention, and has narrowed the list down to three or four, one of whom he will recommend for appointment. When informed that it was reported in Greenville that there might be additional entries, Mr. Johnson said that this would be useless, so far as his choice is concerned, because he has decided to name one of not more than four applicants already in the field.

"I hope there won't be any useless excitement about this matter," said Mr. Johnson. "There isn't any use for 25,000 people to be wrought up concerning a postmaster whom they never have any dealings with and never see, practically, in his official capacity. The dealings that the public have with the postoffice are through the assistant postmaster and the clerks in the office, and the duties of the postmaster are with the department in Washington almost exclusively."

"There are several applicants for the postmastership at Greenville. The term of the present postmaster expires shortly after Christmas. It is my purpose to recommend to the president the appointment of one of about three of the candidates already in the field, though just which one I have not exactly decided. The recommendation will probably be made before the Christmas recess of congress, which convenes on December 7th."

"I can only say that if my recommendation is accepted by the postmaster general and the president, Greenville will have a capable and efficient postmaster, as she has at the present time. That is the important thing, as I look at it."

They do not object to taking it," writes Mrs. Lafayette Tuck, Homer City, Pa. This remedy contains no opium or other narcotic, and may be given to a child as confidently as to an adult.
